

Ó CLÉIRIGH SEMINARS

October – December 2022

A 15th century map of Ireland from Bodleian Library Oxford Ashmole 1352, fol3r.

Seminars will take place at 4pm in K114 Newman Building, UCD, Belfield.

7 October

Evan Bourke (MU), 'Enter Macmorris: Visualising contiguity and patronage in Early Modern Ireland'.

14 October

Coleman Dennehy (UCD), 'Plantation, punishment, pain, and pardon - how the criminal justice system worked in early modern Ireland'.

21 October

Brendan O'Neill (UCD), 'Making Places: Metal craft at the early medieval royal site of Moynagh Lough, Co. Meath'.

11 November

Karie Schultz (St. Andrew's), 'National Identities in Conflict: The English, Scots, and Irish Colleges Abroad, c. 1660-1707'.

18 November

Edward Coleman, Paul Duffy, Tadhg O'Keeffe, Paolo Virtuani, 'Ireland and the Crusades. A panel discussion'.

25 November

Michael Potterton (MU), 'From caput to caput: the rise and fall of medieval Ferns, c.600-c.1600'.

2 December

'Eoin MacNeill – historian and medievalist I' led by Conor Mulvagh (UCD) and Emer Purcell (NUI)

9 December

'Eoin MacNeill – historian and medievalist II' led by Conor Mulvagh (UCD) and Emer Purcell (NUI)

For further details or to join the mailing list contact: mocleirigh@ucd.ie
<http://www.ucd.ie/mocleirigh/>