Bea Cantillon: published widely and internationally on a range of issues relating to poverty, social policy, social security, the welfare state, and gender. She has acted as a consultant to, among others, the OECD, the European Commission and the Belgian government. Since 2013 she is a member of the commission on pension reform 2020-2040. The Deleeck Centre, linked to Prof. Cantillon, has been recognized as a centre of excellence under the Flemish Methusalem program, granting substantial long-term structural financing to support internationally recognized scientific research.
