

Graduate Research and Innovations Fund

College of Social Sciences & Law, Graduate School

---

Graduate Research & Innovation Fund, Autumn 2015

The following graduate research students in the College of Social Sciences & Law successfully received funding in the most recent round of Graduate Research & Innovation Fund, Autumn 2015:

- Taciso Amorim Carvalho (School of Politics & International Relations) awarded €275.96 towards presenting at the Braga Colloquium in the History of Moral & Political Philosophy in Braga Portugal, January 2016;
- Sarah Cooney (School of Psychology) awarded €375 to present the European Conference of Visual Perception in Liverpool, August 2015;
- Laura Finlay (School of Social Policy, Social Work and Social Justice) €300 to attend the Feminist Theory Workshop in Duke University, North Carolina (March 2016);
- Orla Moran (School of Psychology) has been awarded €400 to present her research at the 13th Association of Contextual Science World conference in Berlin, July 2015;
- Conor Morris (School of Philosophy) €300 to present at the Dewey & Cognitive Sciences conference in Cairo, Egypt, October 2015;
- Meline Papzian (School of Philosophy) €150 to present a paper at the Dan Zahavi's symposium, University of Amsterdam. November 2015;
- Kejia Xue (School of Politics & International Relations) has been awarded €300 to attend the ECPR 2016 Winter School in Methods and Techniques, Bamberg, Germany, March 2016
- Yao Han (School of Politics & International Relations) awarded €300 to present a paper at the 26th Chinese Economic Association conference in University of Nottingham, September 2015