

Intercultural Learning Statement

UCD is committed to inclusive learning and celebrates our diverse and intercultural community of students, academics and staff. Intercultural learning is about the opportunity and experiences of working with and learning from people across different cultures.

My module seeks to foster an intercultural environment where, respect, empathy and compassion are core values in education and part of everyday life interactions across our UCD campus.

Learn more about intercultural learning at UCD here.